

Cafe Terroni's Dinner Rush

Dinner Rush is gourmet cinema, served with a generous helping of culinary panache.

During the course of one frenzied evening, a restaurant owner and bookmaker deals with a potential hostile takeover, a snooty critic, and his attraction to his dead partner's widow.

Danny Aiello and John Corbett bring the behind-the-scenes drama of a NYC Italian restaurant to life through an exciting tale of gangsters and gourmet food.

See a private screening of the movie at the Iconic Sun Theatre and then stroll to Cafe Terroni and enjoy a five course specially themed dinner New York Style, where our Chefs will create a menu inspired by the movie.

Tickets are strictly limited so get in early to book your seat at the table
